

Wani Iris Manly, Esq.

TEDx and Award-winning Speaker, Attorney & Bestselling Author

Wani Iris Manly is a TEDx and award-winning speaker on Change, a business and IP lawyer, five-time American expat and a bestselling author, but is best-known for her daredevil and iconic move from Miami to Paris, purely on following signs she received daily for one year without--- knowing anyone in France, one word of French and without a plan.

The best-selling author of "Get Out of Survival Mode and Live the Life You Really Want," Wani is an accomplished lawyer and entrepreneur with a background of 20 years as a corporate, business and IP lawyer, as well as a speaker and author.

As a speaker, Wani is often lauded for having that certain "je ne sais quoi" that activates audiences. Her talks show audiences how to change, grow, and create fulfilling lives and success. Her intended outcomes are always to stimulate audiences to have a different perspective and to leave her talk a different and improved person than when they entered the room.

"The sky is not the limit but the viewpoint."
